I have always wanted to see National Geographic and Animal Planet. So, when I was a kid, I used to watch it a lot. When I went to school for the first time, I saw a snake on the way.

(0:15 - 0:27)

I took that snake to my house and showed it to my mother. Then my mother took that snake to my father and mother and released it. After that, it went viral.

(0:28 - 0:34)

Everyone in the village started talking about it. So, I started catching snakes in the village. So, I rescued a snake.

(0:34 - 0:45)

It was my first passion in life. I didn't have the passion to take it to my profession. When I went to college, I did a course on how to train professionally.

(0:48 - 0:55)

I did a private course in the Bannerghatta forest. After that, I completely gave up on snakes. I started my profession.

(0:56 - 1:12)

Since 15-20 years, I have been a member of Wildlife Quick Animal Rescue Team and WRRC. I have rescued snakes. I have also rescued the snakes that were found around our place Anekal.

(1:14 - 1:27)

Along with rescuing these snakes, the next journey in my life is body building. When I was in 8th or 9th grade, my father used to exercise. I saw a bodybuilder in the newspaper.

(1:28 - 1:36)

Karibasappa was an international bodybuilder. I wanted to start bodybuilding after seeing him. After that, I joined the gym with my brother 'Seena anna'.

(1:38 - 1:51)

I didn't know anything about bodybuilding. So, I joined the gym with my brother 'Seena anna' and started bodybuilding. I was working out normally.

(1:52 - 2:02)

I took it professionally. In 2009, I took it completely professionally and started bodybuilding. After that, my bodybuilding journey started with Mr. Bangalore.

(2:02 - 2:06)

It was a local competition. I did a lot. I completed Mr. Mahadevapura.

I titled Mr. Mahadevapura twice. I titled Mr. Karnataka Men's Physique overall. After that, I made Mr. Karnataka silver twice.

(2:16 - 2:26)

(2:27 - 2:36)

I titled Mr. India twice. Once, I titled Mr. India bronze and once, I titled Mr. India gold. After that, I was very happy to be selected as an international.

(2:36 - 2:44)

When I titled Mr. India gold and silver, I was selected as an international. At that time, I met with an accident. After the accident, I thought my bodybuilding journey was over.

(2:44 - 2:59)

During the lockdown, I rested for 6 months. After my recovery, I started powerlifting again. After powerlifting, I titled Mr. India gold in bench press and deadlift.

(3:00 - 3:09)

After that, I wanted to make a comeback. I wanted to start a competition. At that time, I met with an accident in Mysore.

(3:09 - 3:21)

Due to that accident, my bodybuilding journey was cleared. It was not my fault. I was the one paid money for that in Mysore.

(3:21 - 3:31)

After that, I started my bodybuilding journey again. I said that I had achieved enough. I had a professional gym.

(3:31 - 3:41)

Since 2015, I opened my own gym. I am running that gym as an owner and a proprietor. I have been running my own gym for 10 years.

(3:41 - 4:00)

Along with that, I have done personal training and movies. When I started my bodybuilding career in Karnataka, Mr. Bangalore, The directors there called me and asked me to make a movie. After that, my movie journey started.
